F. Suit Against Us

1. No action can be brought against us unless there has been full compliance with all of the terms under this Section II.
2. No one will have the right to join us as a party to any action against an "insured".
3. Also, no action with respect to Coverage E can be brought against us until the obligation of such "insured" has been determined by final judgment or agreement signed by us.

G. Bankruptcy Of An "Insured"

1. A subsequent edition of this policy; or
2. An amendatory endorsement.

E. Assignment

Assignment of this policy will not be valid unless we give our written consent.

F. Subrogation

An "insured" may waive in writing before a loss all rights of recovery against any person. If not waived, we may require an assignment of rights of recovery for a loss to the extent that payment is made by us.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS – CALIFORNIA

This endorsement modifies insurance under the following forms:

Homeowners 3 – Special Form

Homeowners 4 – Contents Broad Form

Homeowners 6 – Unit-Owners Form

NOTICES

Throughout this policy, the term spouse includes an individual registered under California Law as a domestic partner with the "named insured" shown in the Declarations.

The following is added to any provision which uses the term actual cash value:

Actual cash value for a partial loss to a building or structure covered under Coverage A or B, or a total or partial loss to contents covered under Coverage C, is calculated as the lesser of the policy limit or the amount it would cost to repair or replace covered property, at the time of loss or damage, with material of like kind and quality, subject to a deduction for depreciation.

In the event of a total loss to a building or structure covered under Coverage A or B, actual cash value is calculated as the lesser of the following:

1. The policy limit applicable to that building or structure; or
2. The fair market value of the building or structure.

SECTION I – PROPERTY COVERAGES

A. Coverage A – Dwelling

In Form LEM 03, the following is added:

If a state of emergency under California Law is declared, you may combine the policy limits for Coverage A and Coverage B, for any of the covered expenses reasonably necessary to rebuild or replace the damaged or destroyed dwelling, if the Coverage A policy limits to rebuild or replace the dwelling are insufficient. This provision does not increase the limit of liability that applies to Coverage B. Claims payments for other structures in excess of the amount applied towards the necessary cost to rebuild or replace the damaged or destroyed dwelling shall be paid according to the terms of the policy.

D. Coverage D – Loss Of Use

1. Additional Living Expense

The following paragraph is added:

However, if a state of emergency under California Law is declared, payment will be for a period no less than:

 - b. 24 months from the date of loss;
- whichever is shorter.

If you, acting in good faith and with reasonable diligence, encounter a delay or delays in approval for, or reconstruction of, the home or residence that are beyond your control, we shall provide an additional extension of 12 months. Circumstances beyond your control include, but are not limited to:

- a. Unavoidable construction permit delays;
- b. The lack of necessary construction materials; or

- (1) The dwelling or other structure is rebuilt at a new premises; or

SECTION I – EXCLUSIONS

8. Intentional Loss

In Form LEM 03, the following paragraph is added to Exclusion A.8.:

This exclusion does not apply, with respect to loss to covered property caused by fire, to an "insured" who does not commit or conspire to commit any act that results in loss by fire. We cover such "insured" only to the extent of that "insured's" legal interest, but not exceeding the applicable limit of liability.

We may apply reasonable standards of proof to claims for such loss.

SECTION I – CONDITIONS

D. Loss Settlement

In Form LEM 03, Paragraph 2.a. is replaced by the following:

- a. If, at the time of loss, the amount of insurance in this policy on the damaged building is 80% or more of the full replacement cost of the building immediately before the loss, we will pay the cost to repair or replace, after application of any deductible and without deduction for depreciation, but not more than the least of the following amounts:

- (1) The limit of liability under this policy that applies to the building;
- (2) The replacement cost of that part of the building damaged with material of like kind and quality and for like use; or
- (3) The necessary amount actually spent to repair or replace the damaged building.

If the building is rebuilt at a new premises, the cost described in (2) above is limited to the cost which would have been incurred, including any increased costs you would have incurred due to the enforcement of any ordinance or law, if the building had been built at the original premises.

In Form LEM 03, Paragraph 2.e. is replaced by the following:

- e. We must be notified that you intend to repair or replace the damaged property within:
 - (1) 36 months after our payment for actual cash value if the loss or damage relates to a state of emergency under California Law; or

Circumstances beyond your control include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Unavoidable construction permit delays;
- (2) The lack of necessary construction materials; or
- (3) The unavailability of contractors to perform the necessary work.

Paragraph F. Appraisal is replaced by the following:

F. Appraisal

1. If you and we fail to agree on the amount of loss, either party, only you or we, may make a written demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. The party seeking appraisal must provide the other party with written, itemized documentation of a specific dispute as to the amount of the loss, identifying separately each item being disputed.
2. Each party will select a competent, disinterested appraiser and notify the other party of the appraiser's identity within 20 days of receipt of the written demand for appraisal. The appraisers will then attempt to set the amount of the loss of each item in dispute. A written report of agreement will be signed by them. In all instances the written report of agreement will be itemized and state separately the actual cash value, meaning the replacement cost less the depreciation of materials and labor for repairs; replacement cost, meaning the amount needed to replace or repair an item with a new one of similar kind and quality, without accounting for depreciation; and if applicable, the market value, meaning the price at which the property is worth in the market, of each item in dispute. The written report of agreement will set the amount of the loss of each item in dispute and will be binding upon you and us.
3. If the two appraisers fail to agree upon the amount of the loss within 30 days they will select a competent, disinterested umpire and will submit their differences to the umpire. If they cannot agree upon an umpire within 15 days, you or we may request that the choice be made by a judge of a court of record in the state where the "residence premises" is located. A person may not serve as an appraiser or umpire if that person, any employee of that person, that person's employer, or any employee of their employer: (1) has performed services for either party with respect to the claim at issue in the appraisal; or (2) has a financial interest in the outcome of the claim at issue in the appraisal. Each party will be responsible for the compensation of their selected appraiser. Reasonable expenses of the appraisal and the reasonable compensation of the umpire will be paid equally by you and us.
4. You and we do not waive any rights by demanding or submitting to an appraisal, and retain all contractual rights to determine if coverage applies to each item in dispute. Appraisal is only available to determine the amount of the loss of each item in dispute. The appraisers and the umpire have no authority to decide:
 - a. Any other questions of fact;
 - b. Questions of law;
 - c. Questions of coverage;
 - d. Other contractual issues; or
 - e. To conduct appraisal on a class-wide basis.
5. A party may not demand appraisal after that party brings suit or action against the other party relating to the amount of loss.

Paragraph H. Suit Against Us is replaced by the following:

H. Suit Against Us

No action can be brought against us unless there has been full compliance with all of the terms under Section I of this policy and the action is started within one year after the date of loss. In the event a covered loss relates to a state of emergency as defined in Section 8558 of the Government Code of the State of California, the time limit to bring action is extended to 24 months after the date of loss.

Paragraph J. Loss Payment is replaced by the following:

J. Loss Payment

We will adjust all losses with you. We will pay you unless some other person is named in the policy or is legally entitled to receive payment. Loss will be payable 30 days after we receive your proof of loss and:

1. Reach an agreement with you;
2. There is an entry of a final judgment; or
3. There is a filing of an appraisal award with us.

Paragraph R. Concealment Or Fraud is replaced by the following:

 - a. Intentionally concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance;
 - b. Engaged in fraudulent conduct; or

c. Made false statements;
relating to this insurance.

2. With respect to loss caused by a peril other than fire, we provide coverage to no "insureds" under this policy, if, whether before or after a loss, an "insured" has:

- a. Intentionally concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance;
- b. Engaged in fraudulent conduct; or
- c. Made false statements;
relating to this insurance.

(This is Condition Q. in Form LEM 04.)

SECTIONS I AND II – CONDITIONS

Paragraph C. Cancellation is replaced by the following:

C. Cancellation

- 1. You may cancel this policy at any time by returning it to us or by letting us know in writing of the date cancellation is to take effect.
- 2. If a state of emergency under California Law is declared and the dwelling or other structure is located in any ZIP code within or adjacent to the fire perimeter, as determined by California Law, we may not cancel this policy for one year, beginning from the date the state of emergency is declared, solely because the dwelling or other structure is located in an area in which a wildfire has occurred.

However, we may cancel:

- a. When you have not paid the premium, at any time by letting you know at least 10 days before the date cancellation takes effect;
- b. If willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions by the named insured, or his or her representatives, are discovered that materially increase any of the risks insured against.
 - (1) When this policy has been in effect for less than 60 days and is not a renewal with us, we will notify you at least 20 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
 - (2) When this policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, we will notify you at least 30 days before the date cancellation takes effect; or
- c. If there are physical changes in the property insured against, beyond the catastrophe-damaged condition of the structures and surface landscape, which result in the property becoming uninsurable.
 - (1) When this policy has been in effect for less than 60 days and is not a renewal with us, we will notify you at least 20 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
 - (2) When this policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, we will notify you at least 30 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
- 3. We may cancel this policy only for the reasons stated below by letting you know in writing of the date cancellation takes effect. This cancellation notice may be delivered to you, electronically transmitted to you, if permissible by law, or mailed to you at your mailing address shown in the Declarations. Proof of mailing or electronic transmission will be sufficient proof of notice.
 - a. When you have not paid the premium, we may cancel at any time by letting you know at least 10 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
 - b. When this policy has been in effect for less than 60 days and is not a renewal with us, we may cancel for any reason, except as provided below, by letting you know at least 20 days before the date cancellation takes effect.

We may not cancel this policy solely because:

- (1) You accepted an offer of earthquake coverage;
- (2) Corrosive soil conditions exist on the "residence premises". This Provision (2) applies only if this policy includes the following, which excludes loss caused by corrosive soil conditions:
 - (a) LEM 03 - Homeowners 3 – Special Form; or
- (3) You cancelled or did not renew an earthquake policy issued by the California Earthquake Authority (CEA) that included an earthquake policy premium surcharge.

However, we may cancel this policy if you have accepted a new or renewal policy issued by the CEA that included an earthquake policy premium surcharge, but you failed to pay the earthquake policy premium surcharge authorized by the CEA.

However, in the event of a total loss to the "residence premises", we will not cancel while any structure at that location is being rebuilt except for the reasons stated in Paragraphs 2.a. and 2.c. of this Condition C. Cancellation.

- c. When this policy has been in effect for 60 days or more, or at any time if it is a renewal with us, we may only cancel if there has been:
- (1) Conviction of a crime having as one of its necessary elements an act increasing the hazard insured against; or
 - (2) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by:
 - (a) Any "insured" or his or her representative in obtaining this insurance; or
 - (b) You or your representative in pursuing a claim under this policy; or
 - (3) Discovery of grossly negligent acts or omissions substantially increasing any of the hazards insured against; or
 - (4) Physical changes in the property insured against which result in the property becoming uninsurable. However, we may not cancel this policy solely because:
 - (a) Physical changes occur due to a total loss; or
 - (b) Corrosive soil conditions exist on the "residence premises" if this policy includes the following, which excludes loss caused by corrosive soil conditions:
 - (i) LEM 03 - Homeowners 3 – Special Form; or
 - (5) Acceptance of a new or renewal policy issued by the CEA that included an earthquake policy premium surcharge, but you failed to pay the earthquake policy premium surcharge authorized by the CEA.

This can be done by notifying you at least 30 days before the date cancellation takes effect.

- d. When this policy is written for a period longer than one year, we may cancel for any reason at anniversary by notifying you at least 45 days before the date cancellation takes effect.
4. When this policy is cancelled, the premium for the period from the date of cancellation to the expiration date will be refunded pro rata. However, the return premium may be less than pro rata if we made a loan to you for the purpose of payment of premiums for this policy.
5. If, when we cancel this policy, the return premium is not refunded with the notice of cancellation, we will refund it within 25 business days after we send the cancellation notice to you. If, when you cancel this policy, the return premium is not refunded when this policy is returned to us, we will refund it within 25 business days of the date when we receive your notice of cancellation.

Paragraph D. Nonrenewal is replaced by the following:

D. Nonrenewal

1. We may elect not to renew this policy, subject to the provisions of 2. below. We may do so by delivering to you, electronically transmitting to you, if permissible by law, or mailing to you at your mailing address shown in the Declarations, written notice at least 75 days before the expiration date of this policy. Proof of mailing or electronic submission will be sufficient proof of notice.
2. We will not refuse to renew this policy:

- a. Solely because you accepted an offer of earthquake coverage.

However, the following applies only to insurers who are associate participating insurers as established by Cal. Ins. Code Section 10089.16. We may elect not to renew this policy after you have accepted an offer of earthquake coverage if one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (1) The nonrenewal is based on sound underwriting principles that relate to the coverages provided by this policy and that are consistent with the approved rating plan and related documents filed with the Department of Insurance as required by existing law;

- (2) The Commissioner of Insurance finds that the exposure to potential losses will threaten our solvency or place us in a hazardous condition. A hazardous condition includes, but is not limited to, a condition in which we make claims payments for losses resulting from an earthquake that occurred within the preceding two years and that required a reduction in policyholder surplus of at least 25% for payment of those claims; or
- (3) We have:
- (a) Lost or experienced a substantial reduction in the availability or scope of reinsurance coverage; or
 - (b) Experienced a substantial increase in the premium charged for reinsurance coverage of our residential property insurance policies; and
- the Commissioner has approved a plan for the nonrenewals that is fair and equitable, and that is responsive to the changes in our reinsurance position;
- b. Solely because you cancelled or did not renew an earthquake policy, issued by the CEA, that included an earthquake policy premium surcharge;
 - c. Solely because corrosive soil conditions exist on the "residence premises". This Provision c. applies only if this policy includes the following, which excludes loss caused by corrosive soil conditions:
 - (1) LEM 03 - Homeowners 3 – Special Form; or
 - d. Solely on the grounds that a claim is pending under the policy unless such claim is made under coverage for loss caused by an earthquake; or
 - e. Solely on the basis of an "insured's" age.
3. If this policy is written for a period of less than one year, we agree not to refuse to renew except at the end of an annual period commencing with the original or renewal effective date.
4. If a state of emergency under California Law is declared and the dwelling or other structure is located in any ZIP Code within or adjacent to the fire perimeter, as determined by California Law, we may not nonrenew this policy for one year, beginning from the date the state of emergency is declared, solely because the dwelling or other structure is located in an area in which a wildfire has occurred.
- However, we may nonrenew:
- a. If willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions by the named insured, or his or her representatives, are discovered that materially increase any of the risks insured against;
 - b. If losses unrelated to the post-disaster loss condition of the property have occurred that would collectively render the risk ineligible for renewal; or
 - c. If there are physical changes in the property insured against, beyond the catastrophe-damaged condition of the structures and surface landscape, which result in the property becoming uninsurable.

All other provisions of this policy apply.

We agree, with respect to "residence employees":

UNDER COVERAGE I

To pay when due all benefits required of an "insured" by the California Workers' Compensation Law; and

UNDER COVERAGE II

To pay on behalf of an "insured" all damages for which the "insured" is legally liable because of "bodily injury" sustained by a "residence employee". The "bodily injury" must be caused by accident or disease and arise out of and in the course of employment by the "insured" while:

1. In the United States of America, its territories or possessions, or Canada, or
2. Temporarily elsewhere if the "residence employee" is a citizen or resident of the United States or Canada.

Coverage II does not apply to any suit brought in or judgment rendered by any court outside the United States of America, its territories and possessions, or Canada, or to any action on such judgment.

B. Who Is Covered

A "residence employee" is covered if during the 90 calendar days immediately before the date of injury the employee has:

- a. Actually been engaged in such employment by the "insured" for no less than 52 hours, and
- b. Earned no less than one hundred dollars ($100) in wages.

C. Application Of Coverage

This insurance applies only to "bodily injury" which occurs during the policy period. If the "bodily injury" is a disease, it must be caused or aggravated by the conditions of the "residence employee's" employment by the "insured".

D. Policy Provisions

This insurance is subject to all the provisions of this endorsement and the following provisions of this policy:

1. Under Sections I and II – Conditions:

- B. Waiver Or Change Of Policy Provisions
- C. Cancellation
- E. Assignment
- F. Subrogation

2. Under Section II – Conditions:

- C. Duties After "Occurrence"
- F. Suit Against Us

3. Under Section II – Liability Coverages, our agreement to defend an "insured" as provided under A. Coverage E – Personal Liability.

4. Under Section II – Additional Coverages:

- A. Claim Expenses.
- B. First Aid Expenses.

5. The definitions of "bodily injury", "business", "insured" and "residence employee".

E. Additional Provisions Applicable To Coverage I

The following provisions are applicable to Coverage I:

1. We shall be directly and primarily liable to any "residence employee" of an "insured" entitled to the benefits of the California Workers' Compensation Law.
2. As between the "residence employee" and us, notice to or knowledge of the "occurrence" of the injury on the part of an "insured" will be deemed notice or knowledge on our part.
3. The jurisdiction of an "insured" will, for the purpose of the law imposing liability for compensation, be our jurisdiction.

4. We will be subject to the orders, findings, decisions or awards rendered against an "insured", under the provisions of the law imposing liability for compensation, subject to the provisions, conditions and limitations of this policy. This policy shall govern as between an "insured" and us as to payments by either in discharge or an "insured's" liability for compensation.
5. The "residence employee" has a first lien upon any amount which we owe you on account of this insurance. In case of your legal incapacity or inability to receive the money and pay it to the "residence employee", we will pay it directly to the "residence employee". Your obligation to the "residence employee" will be discharged to the extent of such payment.

F. Limits Of Liability Coverage II

Our total limit of liability will not exceed $100,000 for all damages because of "bodily injury":

1. Sustained by one or more "residence employees" in any one accident; or
2. Caused by disease and sustained by a "residence employee".

Our total limit of liability will not exceed $500,000 for all damages arising out of "bodily injury" by disease regardless of the number of "residence employees" who sustain "bodily injury" by disease.

G. Other Insurance

This insurance does not apply to any loss to which other valid and collectible Workers' Compensation or Employers' Liability Insurance applies.

H. Conformity To Statute

Terms of this insurance which are in conflict with the California Workers' Compensation Law are amended to conform to that law.

I. Exclusions

This policy does not apply:

1. To liability for additional compensation imposed on an "insured" under Sections 4553 and 4557, Division IV, Labor Code of the State of California, because of the serious and willful misconduct of an "insured", or because of "bodily injury" to an employee under 16 years of age and illegally employed at the time of injury;
2. To liability for "bodily injury" arising out of "business" pursuits of an "insured".
3. Under Coverage II:
 - a. To liability assumed by the "insured" under any contract or agreement.
 - b. To "bodily injury" by disease unless a written claim is made or suit brought against the "insured" within 36 months after the end of the policy period.
 - c. To any obligation under a workers' compensation, unemployment or disability benefits law or any similar law.

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY INSURANCE BILL OF RIGHTS AND CLAIM REPORTING DISCLOSURE NOTICE

CALIFORNIA RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY BILL OF RIGHTS

The largest single investment most consumers make is their home and related property. In order to best protect these assets, it is wise for consumers to understand the residential property insurance market. Consumers should consider the following:

Read your policy carefully and understand the coverage and limits provided. Residential property insurance policies contain sublimits for various coverages such as personal property, debris removal, additional living expense, detached fences, garages, etc.

Keep accurate records of renovations and improvements to the structure of your home, as it could affect your need to increase your coverage.

Maintaining a list of all personal property, pictures and video equipment may help in the case of a loss. The list should be stored away from your home.

Comparison shop for insurance, as not all policies are the same and coverage and prices vary.

Take time to determine the cost to rebuild or replace your property in today's market. You can seek an independent evaluation of this cost.

An agent or insurance company may help you establish policy limits that are adequate to rebuild your home.

Once the policy is in force, contact your agent or insurance company immediately if you believe your policy limits may be inadequate.

A consumer is entitled to receive information regarding residential property insurance. The following is a limited overview of information that your insurance company can provide:

- The California Residential Property Insurance Disclosure.
- An explanation of how your policy limits were established.
- The insurance company's customer service telephone number for underwriting, rating and claims inquiries.
- A written explanation for any cancellation or nonrenewal of your policy.
- A copy of the insurance policy.
- In the event of a claim, an itemized, written scope of loss report prepared by the insurer or its adjuster within a reasonable time period.
- In the event of a claim, notification of a consumer's rights with respect to the appraisal process for resolving claims disputes.
- In the event of a claim, a copy of the Unfair Practices Act and, if requested, a copy of the Fair Claims Practices Regulations.
- An offer of coverage and premium quote for earthquake coverage, if eligible.

A consumer is also entitled to select a licensed contractor or vendor to repair, replace or rebuild damaged property covered by the insurance policy.

The information provided herein is not all inclusive and does not negate or preempt existing California law. If you have any concerns or questions, contact your agent, broker, insurance company, or the California Department of Insurance consumer information line at 1-800-927-HELP (4357) or at www.insurance.ca.gov for free insurance assistance.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS — CALIFORNIA RESIDENTIAL INSURANCE DISCLOSURE

This disclosure is required by Section 10102 of the California Insurance Code. This form provides general information related to residential property insurance and is not part of your residential property insurance policy. Only the specific provisions of your policy will determine whether a particular loss is covered and the amount payable. The information provided does not preempt existing California law.

PRIMARY FORMS OF RESIDENTIAL DWELLING COVERAGE

You have purchased the coverage(s) checked below. NOTE: Actual Cash Value Coverage is the most limited level of coverage listed. Guaranteed Replacement Cost is the broadest level of coverage.

_____ ACTUAL CASH VALUE COVERAGE pays the costs to repair the damaged dwelling minus a deduction for physical depreciation. If the dwelling is completely destroyed, this coverage pays the fair market value of the dwelling at time of loss. In either case, coverage only pays for costs up to the limits specified in your policy.

_____ REPLACEMENT COST COVERAGE is intended to provide for the cost to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed dwelling, without a deduction for physical depreciation. Many policies pay only the dwelling's actual cash value until the insured has actually begun or completed repairs or reconstruction on the dwelling. Coverage only pays for replacement costs up to the limits specified in your policy.

_____ EXTENDED REPLACEMENT COST COVERAGE is intended to provide for the cost to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed dwelling without a deduction for physical depreciation. Many policies pay only the dwelling's actual cash value until the insured has actually begun or completed repairs or reconstruction on the dwelling. Extended Replacement Cost provides additional coverage above the dwelling limits up to a stated percentage or specific dollar amount. See your policy for the additional coverage that applies.

_____ GUARANTEED REPLACEMENT COST COVERAGE covers the full cost to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed dwelling for a covered peril regardless of the dwelling limits shown on the policy declarations page.

_____ BUILDING CODE UPGRADE COVERAGE, also called Ordinance and Law coverage, is an important option that covers additional costs to repair or replace a dwelling to comply with the building codes and zoning laws in effect at the time of loss or rebuilding. These costs may otherwise be excluded by your policy. Meeting current building code requirements can add significant costs to rebuilding your home. Refer to your policy or endorsement for the specific coverage provided and coverage limits that apply.

READ YOUR POLICY AND POLICY DECLARATIONS PAGE CAREFULLY: The policy declarations page shows the specific coverage limits you have purchased for your dwelling, personal property, separate structures such as detached garages, and additional living expenses. The actual policy and endorsements provide the details on extensions of coverage, limitations of coverage, and coverage conditions and exclusions. The amount of any claim payment made to you will be reduced by any applicable deductibles shown on your policy declarations page. It is important to take the time to consider whether the limits and limitations of your policy meet your needs. Contact your agent, broker, or insurance company if you have questions about what is covered or if you want to discuss your coverage options.

INFORMATION YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT RESIDENTIAL DWELLING INSURANCE

AVOID BEING UNDERINSURED: Insuring your home for less than its replacement cost may result in your having to pay thousands of dollars out of your own pocket to rebuild your home if it is completely destroyed. Contact your agent, broker, or insurance company immediately if you believe your policy limits may be inadequate.

THE RESIDENTIAL DWELLING COVERAGE LIMIT: The coverage limit on the dwelling structure should be high enough so you can rebuild your home if it is completely destroyed. Please note:

- The cost to rebuild your home is almost always different from the market value.
- Dwelling coverage limits do not cover the value of your land.
- The estimate to rebuild your home should be based on construction costs in your area and should be adjusted to account for the features of your home. These features include but are not limited to the square footage, type of foundation, number of stories, and the quality of the materials used for items such as flooring, countertops, windows, cabinetry, lighting and plumbing.
- The cost to rebuild your home should be adjusted each year to account for inflation.
- Coverage limits for contents, separate structures, additional living expenses and debris removal are usually based on a percentage of the limit for the dwelling. If your dwelling limit is too low, these coverage limits may also be too low.

You are encouraged to obtain a current estimate of the cost to rebuild your home from your insurance agent, broker, or insurance company or an independent appraisal from a local contractor, architect, or real estate appraiser. If you do obtain an estimate of replacement value, and wish to change your policy limits, contact your insurance company. While not a guarantee, a current estimate can help protect you against being underinsured.

DEMAND SURGE: After a widespread disaster, the cost of construction can increase dramatically as a result of the unusually high demand for contractors, building supplies and construction labor. This effect is known as demand surge. Demand surge can increase the cost of rebuilding your home. Consider increasing your coverage limits or purchasing Extended Replacement Cost coverage to prepare for this possibility.

CHANGES TO PROPERTY: Changes to your property may increase its replacement cost. These changes may include the building of additions, customizing your kitchen or bathrooms, or otherwise remodeling your home. Failure to advise your insurance company of any significant changes to your property may result in your home being underinsured.

EXCLUSIONS: Not all causes of damage are covered by common homeowners or residential fire policies. You need to read your policy to see what causes of loss or perils are not covered. Coverage for landslide is typically excluded. Some excluded perils such as earthquake or flood can be purchased as an endorsement to your policy or as a separate policy. Contact your agent, broker, or insurance company if you have a concern about any of the exclusions in your policy.

CONTENTS (PERSONAL PROPERTY) COVERAGE DISCLOSURE:

This disclosure form does not explain the types of contents coverage provided by your policy for items such as your furniture or clothing. Contents may be covered on either an actual cash value or replacement cost basis depending on the contract. Almost all policies include specific dollar limitations on certain property that is particularly valuable such as jewelry, art, or silverware. Contact your agent, broker or insurance company if you have any questions about your contents coverage. You should create a list of all personal property in and around your home. Pictures and video recordings also help you document your property. The list, photos, and video should be stored away from your home.

CALIFORNIA WILDFIRE SCORING AND MITIGATION DISCOUNTS NOTICE

This disclosure is required by Section 2644.9 of the California Insurance Code. This form provides information related to your property insurance and associated wildfire risk score or classification. The information included will help you understand your wildfire risk so you can proactively manage your risk and ensure that your wildfire premiums reflect your exposure.

Verisk FireLine® score has been used to measure the wildfire hazard at your location. FireLine® scores range from 0 (negligible risk) to 30 (extreme risk) and provide an objective assessment of a property's propensity to burn in the event of a wildfire based on the most current assessment of three key wildfire risk factors, which are also recognized by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA):

Fuel: Grass, trees, or dense brush can feed a wildfire.

Slope: Steeper slopes can increase the speed and intensity of wildfire.

Access: Limited access and dead-end roads can impede firefighting equipment.

Your FireLine® Score is: 0

There are several mitigation actions you can take to protect your property against damage, should a wildfire occur near your home. Therefore, Lemonade offers the following available premium credits for wildfire mitigation activities, up to a 0.5% premium reduction.
